

Meetings and Events: Our COVID-19 Guide

Levy

You Can Trust Us

We understand the importance of meeting face to face, so our aim is to create a safe environment for you to do so.

Please be reassured that you'd be in clean and welcoming hands. This guide has been put together to answer a lot of the questions we've already received.

"Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success." - Henry Ford.

We've Cleaned, and Cleaned Again

We have worked closely with our cleaning and healthcare partners to develop a robust cleaning and sanitation programme to ensure all areas are safe and hygienic.

- Staff fully trained in deep cleaning and disinfection techniques
- ATP testing to assess cleaning efficiency an optional extra
- Increased disinfection of all touchpoints and circulation areas are maintained throughout the day, using the most appropriate and industry-leading chemicals

Your Health and Safety, Our Number One Priority

- All teams are fully trained on current Government guidelines; we have an agile process in place to ensure that change is continuous
- Sanitisation stations for guests and personal protective equipment supplied for all staff as standard
- Pre and during event measures in place, across all private and public spaces, including car parks
- We're in constant communication with our team members to check they are well enough to be in work
